book does not

For School (in classroom): All of this needs to come to meet the teacher

- 1 pk white Card Stock – white or cream
- 3- Large Glue Sticks
- 2 black dry erase markers (small/thin)
- 2-70 sheet wide Rule subject spiral notebooks (1-yellow, 1-blue)
- 2 pks of Crayola Markers (1-larger and 1 small/thin)
- 1-k-1st primary Journal/comp book (half page for drawing and half for writing)
- 1 -2inch Clearview binder (any color is fine)
- 1pk of 25 count of sheet protectors

Items for home: Make sure to keep some art supplies (crayons, markers, and such) on hand for projects and book reports that will come up throughout the school year. You will also need scissors and glue at home to do weekly work in the All About Reading workbook. Having a small dry erase board, magnetic letters (Schoolbox) and some dry erase markers can be helpful to review weekly phonics and spelling lessons at home. The supplies listed above are for our school classroom. They do not come back and forth. Also, some household items like a clean spaghetti jar might be asked for in advance for science and or an art projects.

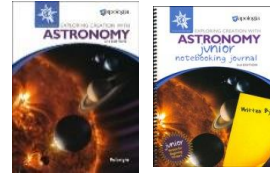

*In First grade, we use Five in a Row volumes (2&4) to build a unit study approach around great literature, geography and history as well as our science each week. Most of this is done in class but some assignments will carry over and be included in homework for the week. Everything needed will be sent home in their communication folder and or on FACTS. THERE IS NO NEED IN BUYING THESE VOLUMES. If you want to read the stories at home, a link to a video is provided each week.
